Art Unit 1713

Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicants regard as the invention.

This claim depends from a cancelled claim.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit 1713

Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Blok et al.

The rejection as set forth under 35 U.S.C. § 102/103 on page 3 of Paper No. 14 is deemed proper and is herein repeated.

Applicants respond to this rejection by alleging that the composition does produce a run flat tire having unexpected features. This is not persuasive. Applicants should note that this is a rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 102 wherein a showing of unexpected results does not obviate the rejection. The Examiner maintains that the properties which are claimed are inherently possessed by the prior art given that the prior art shows compositions which are the same as those claimed.

Claims 17-19, 21 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) or (e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over EP 070143 or J09151279.

The rejection as set forth under 35 U.S.C. § 102/103 in Paper No. 5 is deemed proper and is herein repeated.

Applicants allege that the instantly claimed invention provides a run flat tire having unexpected results. This is not persuasive. Applicants should note that the rejection is set forth under 35 U.S.C. § 102 and it is maintained that the composition of the prior art which has the same compositional ingredients would possess properties which would either anticipate or render obvious those as instantly claimed. Applicants have failed to show or allege that the prior art does not possess the properties as claimed. As such, the rejection is seen to be proper.

Claims 2, 5, 6, 7, 10, 11 and 12 are seen to be allowable for the reasons as established in the record.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicants are reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a). The practice of automatically extending the shortened statutory period an additional month upon the filing of a timely first response to a final rejection has been discontinued by the Office. See 1021 TMOG 35.

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE TO THIS FINAL ACTION IS SET TO EXPIRE THREE MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS ACTION. IN THE EVENT A FIRST RESPONSE IS FILED WITHIN TWO MONTHS OF THE MAILING DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION AND THE ADVISORY ACTION IS NOT MAILED UNTIL AFTER THE END OF THE THREE-MONTH SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD, THEN THE SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD WILL EXPIRE ON THE DATE THE ADVISORY ACTION IS MAILED, AND ANY EXTENSION FEE PURSUANT TO 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a) WILL BE CALCULATED FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THE ADVISORY ACTION. IN NO EVENT WILL THE STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE EXPIRE LATER THAN SIX MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION.
